NEW YORK AND LYNCHBURG via

THE ORANGE AND ALEXANDRIA
AND VIRGINIA CENTRAL RAILROADS.
411 MILES CONTINUOUS RAIL—NO STAG-ING—TRAINS RUN TO BALTIMORE AND OHIO DEPOT AT WASHINGTON CITY.
TWICE DAILY.

The Orange and Alexandria Railroad having been put in complete repair, are now running two trains daily between Washington City and Lynchburg, connecting with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Washington, the Virginia and Tennessee railroad at Lynchburg, and at Gordonsville with the Virginia Central railroad for Staunton and Richmond.

Passengers taking this line pass in full view of the various battle fields along the line of the Virginia Central Railroad, between Richmond and Gordons-ville, and the famous battle fields of Manassas, Briscoe and Cedar Mountain, on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and may rely upon making close and regular connections with the lines indicated.
Elegant cars are run upon this line, and every accommodation furnished to make the passengers comfortable.

Through passengers arriving in Richmond by the Virginia Central, Richmond and Danville, and Richmond and Petersburg Railroads, will find Garbers &
Co's omnibuses to transport them between depots.
Passengers have ample time to dine and sup at Gordonsville, and breakfast and sup at Virginia Central depot.

Trains leave Richmond, daily, (except Sunday) at 7:15 a. m. and 7:15 p. m.; on Sundays, at 7:15 p. m., only, making close and sure connections at Washington City with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for the following points:

Spotswood Hotel,

RICHMOND, Va., August, 1865.

IT having been reported that the Spotswood Hotel had been confiscated and closed, the proprietors deem it proper to assure the Public that such is not the case. The House is open for the accommodation of visitors, as it has been from its opening day in September, 1860.

The House has been remodeled, renovated, refurnished, and put in perfect order throughout, and the traveling public may rest assured of finding a comfortable accommodations with us as can be found in any first class Hotel, North or South.

Our friends, patrons, and the traveling public generally, visiting Richmond, are cordially invited to make their home with us, and no pains will be spared to make them comfortable, as we are pledged to sustain the well known reputation of the House.

Our former patrons will find the old employees of the House still in our service, were they will be pleased to welcome them as formerly.

Pioneer Line of Steamers,

—FOR—

Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, via Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal.

THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS

PIONEER AND COMMODORE ADAMS,

Will leave New

Berne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock, A

M., connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named points. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay.

Each of these steamers are capable of carrying

TWO HUNDRED AND

FIFTY TONS OF FREIGHT

through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without change.

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best market affords. Families travelling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer WILLIAMS will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to WHITEFORD,

AGENTS WANTED.

We wish to establish agents in all the counties of this State as well as in all the principal towns and cities both North and South, for the purpose of procuring subscribers to the Daily and Weekly Banner—also, to obtain advertisements.

A PENITENTIARY NEEDED.

Crime and immorality of every description and grade is on the increase, and is the necessary result of the unsettled condition of the country. The exposed situation in which many are placed almost invites the perpetration of offences known and punished as crimes. It is on the increase. What are we to do?—Our jails are filled to overflowing. These offenders against the peace, are put into jail, and there idle away their time feeding all the while upon the country. If men will violate the law, they should suffer, and if imprisonment be the proper or fixed punishment, then deprive them of the incentive to crime held out in living on the public free of charge, by forcing them to work for their board.—Our eyes have been opened a little way, let us open them still wider, and as we gaze around us, ask the question, is there no room for improvement—is there no room for reform? All sorts of cheating, stealing and swindling, had such an air of respectability thrown around them during the war, by the persistent efforts of some of our A. Q. M. s. and A. C. S. s. that among many cheating was regarded as a mere pacadillo and furlowing from and speculating upon the Government (C. S. so called,) no matter of course—so that when an honest man was appointed he found his path a hard road to travel.

Crime is not detested as it should, or even to the extent it was before the war. Our observation inclines us to differ with Pope, in that "It is a monster of such hideous mein,

That to be hated, it needs only to be seen."

It is the certainty and severity of punishment which deters most men. Away with those old relics of barbarism, the whipping post, and the pillory—substitute in their lieu the work-house and the penitentiary—what does a darkey care for a whipping, or the pillory.

Build a penitentiary, put these vagrants and convicts in there, and put them to work, earning not only their subsistence, but turning in a few years, a pretty penny for the State.

The negro would come out a wiser and perhaps a better man, and the white convict none the worse for wear. We hope the ensuing Legislature will take the matter in hand and weigh the whole subject carefully, considerably and dispassionately.

CAPT. BARNETT'S CIRCULAR.

We published this very admirable paper several days since, and had intended to comment upon it at the time.

While we are not prepared to say that Capt. Barnett is the only gentleman, connected with the U. S. Army, who fully understands and appreciates the negro character, we do feel warranted in the assertion that he is the only one who has had the temerity to oppose the fixed ideas on the subject prevalent at the North, and to depict the peculiar features of that character, as they exist. He is the freedman's true friend. He tells him plainly but firmly what he is and what he is to expect. He tells them that they have neglected the chance of laying up stores and provisions for the winter by leaving the crops unmaturing, and flocking to the towns gossiping and idling away the precious hours of summer.

He tells them the stern truth, which they had best learn at once, that they must work, work faithfully and diligently, and as directed, or they must starve. We are in hopes that his words of admonition and advice have taken root. We believe they have. The freedman seems generally anxious for work and work cheerfully and with a will, at least such has been our experience lately with both males and females.

As others may not have been so fortunate as ourselves in procuring good servants and inducing honest hard work out of them, we shall pro bono give our recipe for the same. When a freedman approaches us for work, we first observe his manner, we do not expect the old bow and scrape of former times, but we do expect a sufficient amount of deferential politeness to show that the applicant knows that he has not changed his skin, and that we have not changed ours. We next examine his general appearance, preferring color ranging from a done ginger-cake to a deep jet, a full eye, thick lips and broad cantour of face and flattish nose, we next send him on some sudden errand, if he returns promptly, good. If you are not hiring for some work requiring skill, the pattern we here marked out will generally answer your purpose, provided, you observe two directions. Treat him as kindly as if he were a favorite slave, and firmly repel any attempt on his part to shorten the distance between you, and always be in his debt until the time is up, and then pay him a gratuity over and throw in a drink of brandy. In this way you can win his confidence and after having done that, you may be of great service to him, and perhaps through him, to the community of freedmen, by instilling into them sound and sensible notions as to their condition, predicated upon the idea advanced by the President, that this is a white man's government.

Arrival of the Quaker city.

A STORMY PASSAGE.

Our citizens were delighted yesterday at seeing the steamer Quaker City come up to her pier. She was due here on Tuesday last, and her non arrival at the usual time caused much apprehension in the public mind. She brought a full complement of passengers. From Purser Frederick W. Ely we learn that the steamer left New York at half-past five P. M., on Saturday. The weather was fair, and nothing unusual occurred until after passing Hatteras, when the vessel encountered a severe gale. Late Monday night she reached a point off Charleston bar, but Captain West decided to put out to sea, rather than endanger the lives of the passengers and risk the safety of the steamer by attempting to come up to the city.

The vessel proceeded seaward a distance of one hundred miles, the storm in the meantime prevailing with unabated fury. During the gale the sea carried away the bowsprit, stove in the paddle boxes and caused some slight damage to the light upper work. Five horses were thrown overboard. Four of the animals had been recently purchased in Canada by Mr. N. M. Porter, of this city. The remaining horse was owned by Messrs. Stone, Roston & Murray, of Circus notoriety. All of the passengers speak in high praise of the gallant conduct of Captain West and the able management of the officers under him.

Charleston Courier, Oct. 24th.

Capt. J. M. Goodman, who was a passenger on the steamer Quaker City during the storm in a private letter to us says, "only a personal sight could do justice to such a terrible hurricane." All on board gave up all hope and expected every lunge to be the last. Husband and wife and children clasped in each others arms—some praying, some drinking, and all on their faces showed that all hope had gone. Every State room, Cabin, and available place, leaked and was full of water—no table set for thirty-six hours, and the cabin was covered with soaked bread, ham, sausages—vomiting on all sides—children crying—women praying aloud—sick and groaning. It was truly a sad and awful time, and such an one, I never wish to witness again.

FOR THE DAILY BANNER.

In one respect, at least, Salisbury is characteristic of the State, to wit: Slow to move. But in another she is at fault, unlike her mother—is bad at holding on—persevering in a good work.

I mean to apply these remarks to a practicle subject of much importance to the town. There is needed here a strong and thoroughly drilled FIRE COMPANY. No one will dispute this. The town is almost at the mercy of fire, when it breaks out. To be sure, citizens, as a general thing, turn out with buckets, each man on his "own hook," and do the best they can; but all know how difficult it is at fires, to concentrate an effective force at any given point. The unorganized elements of our strength will not be concentrated. The excitement of a surging crowd, observing the progress of crackling flames always prevent it. It must be accomplished by previous organization, by drilling, and by penalties. This has been often attempted, and in one or two instances with success for years together. But from causes not easy to define, our fire companies have did out and for some four or five years there has been none at all. As the winter season—the time of greatest danger—creeps on, and we consider the new, unexpected and unsafe state of the community, the suggestion forces itself upon all reflecting persons, that something should be done to guard the town against devastating fires. The town owns two fire engines, but she has no body of drilled men to manage them. They should be in the hands of such a body, governed by such regulations as should make them effective when needed. Can this not be done? Will not property owners take the matter in hand at once? Or will they wait to see a repetition of terrors by fire.

But in connection with this subject, there is another of equal, if not of paramount importance: That is, providing water and having it within convenient reach in case of fire. I believe this can be done at small cost, and will suggest the general plan: Build a reservoir in the central square of the town, and fill it with rain water! But how will you fill it with rain water? Conduct the water by pipes laid under the ground from as many of the large buildings on the four corners, as shall be deemed sufficient for this purpose. To make it available in all the more densely settled parts of town, by pipes (wooden or iron) to conduct it from this reservoir to hydrants at snitable points.

It is down hill from the public square in all directions, and consequently the reservoir would require but little elevation above the level of the ground to send it to any desired point. It is down hill also, from the roofs of neighboring buildings, so that the rain water could be made to rise in the reservoir to any desired height. To guard against overflowing, the reservoir should be provided with a pipe to carry off the waste water after it has been filled.

This would be a cheap means of providing water; but if the object is of sufficient importance to elicit public concern, some better, and perhaps cheaper plan may be devised. The danger is that our people, by long habit slow to move, may defer it until aroused from their lethargy by a rousing fire.

A. CITIZEN.

A petition for the pardon of Mr. Seddon, late Secretary of War, Confederate States, is circulating in Richmond.

A monument, seventy-four feet high, to O'Connell, was lately inaugurated at Ennis, Ireland.

The military district of Western Kentucky has been broken up.

The Georgia State Convention adjourned on the 8th instant, after providing for another session, if necessary.

We believe the only State prisoners now in close custody, are Messrs. Davis, Clay, Seddon, Mallory, Burton Harrison and Lubbock.

As the line of Railroads is opened, they will extend their business to all points in the South, in addition to those named.

The company has also such favorable contracts with steamer lines from all Northern ports to those of the South, as will enable it to deliver goods at all inland points at rates below the usual charges. The tariff of charges will be based upon a fair business percentage above the cost of transportation, without being onerous or oppressive; nor will it be made less than the cost of transportation, with the view to break down or drive off any rival, to advance to oppressive and unnecessarily high rates. Upon this basis the Company solicits public patronage.

We learn that the fine Court house at Lexington, Davidson county, and the building near it, belonging to Mr. Penery, were destroyed by fire on Thursday night last. This was doubtless the work of an incendiary.

Alarm of Fire.

Many of our citizens, on main street, were startled early yesterday morning, by the cry of fire. It turned out however to be the burning of some clothing or bedding, we learn, caused by the carelessness of some negroes who occupy rooms in the third story of Cowan's Brick Row.

THE NUPTIAL TIE

It has been described as a knot fixed with the tongue which the teeth cannot unloose. But the teeth themselves, if beautiful by the aid of the Sordant, are powerful agents in producing the fanaticism which leads to marriage. The charm, to which this delicious preparation lends to the breath, too, has a decidedly hygienic tendency. White teeth and a pure breath! What heart can resist them?

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. The post offices on the various lines will be supplied, and it is desirable that postmasters be appointed at once. Proposals for any of these routes, and nominations for Postmasters, may be addressed to Gov. Holden, to be forwarded by him to Washington. Persons who may propose to carry the mails must offer the necessary evidence that they will comply with their contracts; and nominations for Postmasters must be endorsed by loyal men, known to the Governor. Females may act as Postmasters, and there is no objection to appointing them.

The advertisement for the regular mail service in this State will appear soon.

We learn that the granting of this special temporary mail service is due to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. R. J. Powell, the State Agent in Washington, aided by W. S. Mason and W. J. Palmer, Esq's. of this city. We believe that no such favor has been extended to any other State.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Washington Aug. 3, 1865.

SIR:—With a view to furnishing mail facilities, at the earliest practicable moment, to persons residing at and near County seats in the State of North Carolina, I have the honor to inform you that the Department on the receipt of reasonable bids for the transportation, will be prepared to issue orders authorizing temporary mail service on routes running from such County seats to the nearest points on railroads on which mails are conveyed.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

W. DENNISON,

Postmaster General.

Hon. W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, Raleigh.
N. B.—By "temporary mail service" is intended service to December 31st, next previous to which time all the routes in the State will be advertised for re-letting from Jan. 1st, 1866.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in this enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classic English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the disappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe, in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topics. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its herick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscription, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Pollard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to
H. RIVES POLLARD,
Richmond, Va.

Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the Church to the importance and necessity of work: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

THE FARMER, A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE,
THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC, ARTS, AND HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "THE FARMER," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptance, and command, in return, a remunerating patronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a Journal of the highest order of its kind. It is to nothing short of this high standard of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain it, will be an object of unremitting effort and unsparing liberality of expenditure. It seeks recognition as a worthy organ of these cardinal branches of national industry, of which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery, without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re-organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly as we may, await the slow progress of tentative effort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and generalization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidance and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehicle of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behalf of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 4th, 1864.

National Thanksgiving Day.

Proclamation by President Johnson.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity and harmony with a great enlargement of civil liberty: And Whereas our Heavenly Father has also during the present year graciously averted from us the calamities of foreign war, pestilence and famine, while our granaries are full of the fruits of an abundant season: And Whereas righteousness exalteth a nation, while sin is a reproach to any people:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to the people thereof that they do set apart and observe the first Thursday of December next as a day of National Thanks—given to the Creator of the Universe for these deliverances and blessings. And I do further recommend, that on the occasion the whole people make confession of our national sins against His infinite goodness, and with one heart and one mind implore the Divine guidance in the ways of national virtue and holiness.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and of the Independence of the U. States of America the nineteenth.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:

WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

FOR SALE.

I OFFER for sale a small Tract of Land situated on the N. C. R. 2 1/2 miles South of Salisbury.
This Tract contains about 300 acres, more or less, 60 of which has been recently cleared and is fresh, and new, and exceedingly fertile—a part of the 60 acres is high meadow land, and constitutes about half of the whole arable land now cleared. The meadow may be used for cereal or grass purposes, and is equally valuable for both. The balance of the land is well timbered with virgin growth and convenient to a good market. There is also a "Gold Mine" of tested value on the same Tract, to which I propose to attach 30 acres or more of wooded land, which I propose to sell separately. I shall remain in Salisbury for two weeks, where I shall be happy to treat with any person wishing to purchase, after which time I shall intrust the sale of the above to the care of Col.
B. Craige my recommended agent. The purchaser can have the benefit of supplying himself with 60 lbs of corn and all of the farming implements &c. necessary to conduct the farm.

GENEAL COMMISSION BUSINESS

in this Town, West Side Craven Street, on Old County Wharf.

To the sale of COTTON, NAVAL STORES, TOBACCO, LUMBER, STAVES, SHINGLES, CORN, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of

Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give personal attention.

WE are Agents for MURRAY'S NORTH CAROLINA SEMI-WEEKLY LINE OF STEAMSHIPS, between NEWBERN and NEW YORK, and for Sailing Vessels for BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, and other Ports in the United States, and for different Ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a Weekly line of OCEAN STEAMSHIP on the same route, and a Tri-Weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

WE WILL MAKE LIBERAL ADVANCES ON CONSIGNMENTS.

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.

LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

New Volume begins January, 1865.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:

London Quarterly,	Revue de Deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Popular Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers's Journal,
Dublin University Magazine	Edinburgh Review,
Art Journal,	London National Review.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN, AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important historical events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

TERMS: $5 per Year; Single Numbers, 50 cents. Five copies, $20.

The Watchman.

THE subscriber proposes to commence in the city of New York, at an early date, the publication of a weekly Journal, to take the highest practicable position on its line of Literature. Each number will contain eight large pages, with six columns to each page, printed on excellent paper in a superior style of photography, and so folded that it may be bonnd.

It will discuss all the current topics of Religion, Sociology, Science, Art, Politics, Commerce, Finance and Agriculture, liberally, carefully, thoroughly, and from a broad platform far above all partizanship. While the entire control of the work will be in the hands of the Editor, he hopes to have a circulation which will enable him to secure in its several departments the best aid which America and Europe can afford.

Faithful to his own Denomination, he trusts that he is so well known in all the Churches for liberality, that any publication of his may unhesitatingly be sent into the families of any Christian community. It may be the mission of this Journal to make all Christians see one another in a lovelier light. The subscriber has an earnest desire, and will make a hearty effort, to produce such a publication that where a family can take only one paper, this will more nearly supply all its wants than any other. A Home Gazette, a Repertory of all the best current Literature, a Summary of all important Intelligence in every department of Human Efforts, a Journal of Progress, an Advocate of Truth in all things, a Friend, a Guide, a Blessing—this is what "The Watchman" is intended to become.

The Editor has never been a partisan, and expects the discussion of politics in his journal to have to do mainly with its higher aspects and questions. The only desirable and permanent Union of States or of churches is a union upon the basis of an affectionate reception of a fundamental, political, or moral and religious truths with a hearty hatred of all certain error, and a generous absence of all fanaticism and strife in regard to what is not essential to political common weal or spiritual salvation. Into this happy unity the "Watchman" will labor to bring all within the reach of its influence.

This journal will afford a common meeting ground for Southern men of all views and thus keep our people in one portion of the South informed of the sentiments and views of those in other parts. It will present to other sections of the U. States a clear view of the animus of our people; It will thus secure the South justice and support without promoting sectionalism.

Many reasons unnecessary to state have led many influential persons to the belief that the interests of the South and of the whole country will be greatly promoted by issuing the publication from New York.

The price is put at $2 for the first six months, or $1 for the first three months. No subscription received for less than three, or more than six months. These terms allow one to subscribe for several copies for a short time, for general distribution. The first person who responded to a circular issued just before this prospectus, subscribe for 20 copies to distribute North and South. Write plainly the name, the post office, and number of copies and the length of time, and address.

HEADQUARTERS, District W. N. C.,
Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 11th, 1865.

GENERAL ORDERS,

No. 3.

Most of the misconduct of the troops in this District, has been occasioned by the use of intoxicating liquor. This liquor in most cases is procured from citizens.

The Col. Commanding the District is sincerely desirous of securing discipline among the troops, but it is well nigh impossible to do so, while the principal cause of the difficulty is furnished by the citizens themselves.

It is hereby directed that all persons, who shall sell, barter, or give away to any soldier, any intoxicating liquor, of any kind whatsoever shall be arrested, and tried by a Provost Court, and on being found guilty shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both.

All officers, are strictly enjoined to use every exertion to ferret out and bring to punishment those who may violate this order, and all good citizens, are earnestly requested to aid in its execution.

By Command of

COL. JASPER PACKARD.
